JOINT MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

COMES NOW the Director of the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration, John Huff by and through counsel, Tamara Kopp and Universal Casualty Company by and through counsel Inglish & Monaco, P.C. and for its Joint Motion for Continuance states as follows:

1. On or about June 11, 2010, the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration (hereinafter Department) filed a Statement of Charges, Summary Cease and Desist Order and Order to Show Cause (hereinafter Statement of Charges). Pursuant to the Department's Statement of Charges, a hearing is currently set in this matter for February 2, 2010;

2. Whereas, the parties have been in discussions with respect to a resolution of this matter without the need for trial;

3. The parties believe and concur that additional time is necessary in order to fully resolve all issues surrounding this matter before trial which would necessitate a continuance of the current trial date of February 2, 2010;

4. Now therefore, the parties hereby move that the current trial date of February 2, 2009, be continued to a date in the near future;

5. This joint motion is not intended to hinder or delay these proceedings, but it is intended to give the parties an opportunity to work toward resolution of the issues contained in the Department's Statement of Charges;

WHEREFORE, the parties jointly pray that this matter be continued from the current date of February 2, 2010, to a date in the near future.

Respectfully Submitted,
INGLISH & MONACO, P.C.
