Case No. 207021

ORDER REFUSING TO RENEW MOTOR VEHICLE EXTENDED SERVICE CONTRACT PRODUCER LICENSE

On March 21, 2014, the Consumer Affairs Division submitted a Petition to the Director alleging cause for refusing to renew the motor vehicle extended service contract (MVESC) producer license of Alexandria A. Arcobasso. After reviewing the Petition and the Investigative Report, the Director issues the following findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Alexandria A. Arcobasso ("Arcobasso") is a Missouri resident with a residential address of record of 972 Pine St., St. Charles, Missouri, 63301.
2. On December 14, 2011, the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration ("Department") received Arcobasso's original Application for Motor Vehicle Extended Service Contract Producer License ("2011 Application").
3. Background Question No. 4 of the 2011 Application asked the following:

Have you been notified by any jurisdiction to which you are applying of any delinquent tax obligation that is not the subject of a repayment agreement?

If you answer yes, identify the jurisdiction(s): _____

4. Arcobasso marked "No" to Background Question No. 4.
5. On January 1, 2012, the Director issued Arcobasso an MVESC producer license, which license expired on January 1, 2014.

6. At no time between December 14, 2011, and September 12, 2013, did Arcobasso disclose any delinquent tax obligation to the Director.
7. On September 12, 2013, the Department received Arcobasso's Application for Motor Vehicle Extended Service Contract Producer License ("2013 Application").
8. Because Arcobasso already held an MVESC producer license when she submitted the Application, her 2013 Application was for renewal of her MVESC producer license.
9. By signing the 2013 Application, Arcobasso attested that "all of the information submitted in this application and attachments is true and complete."
10. Background Question No. 4 of the 2013 Application asked the following:

Have you been notified by any jurisdiction to which you are applying of any delinquent tax obligation that is not the subject of a repayment agreement?

If you answer yes, identify the jurisdiction(s): _____
11. Arcobasso marked "No" to Background Question No. 4 of the 2013 Application.
12. Arcobasso did not disclose any delinquent tax obligation in her 2013 Application.
13. Contrary to Arcobasso's "No" answer to Question No. 4 of the 2013 Application, the Consumer Affairs Division's investigation revealed information indicating that Arcobasso owed a delinquent tax obligation, of which she had been notified:
 - a. On December 7, 2012, the Director of the Missouri Department of Revenue filed a Certificate of Tax Lien – Individual Income Tax in the St. Charles County Circuit Court, certifying that Arcobasso owed $1,283.12 in delinquent taxes, interest and fees, which, upon filing, became the judgment of the court under § 143.902. The judgment remains unsatisfied.¹
14. It is inferable, and is hereby found as fact, that Arcobasso falsely answered no to Question No. 4 of the 2013 Application and failed to disclose her delinquent tax obligation in her 2013 Application, in order to misrepresent to the Director that she had no delinquent tax obligations, and, accordingly, in order to improve the chances that the Director would approve her 2013 Application and issue her an MVESC producer license.
15. On September 18, 2013, Consumer Affairs Division investigator Andrew Engler mailed an inquiry letter to Arcobasso requesting information about the current status of her Missouri state tax lien and a copy of any repayment schedule.

¹ Department of Revenue v. Alexandria A. Arcobasso, St. Charles Co. Cir. Ct., No. 1211-MC06770.

16. Engler mailed the September 18, 2013 letter by first class mail to Arcobasso's address of record, with sufficient postage attached.
17. The September 18, 2013 letter was not returned as undeliverable.
18. Arcobasso never responded to the September 18, 2013 letter and has not demonstrated any justification for her failure to respond.
19. On October 9, 2013, Engler mailed a second inquiry letter to Arcobasso, again requesting information about the current status of her Missouri state tax lien and a copy of any repayment schedule.
20. Engler mailed the October 9, 2013 letter by first class mail to Arcobasso's address of record, with sufficient postage attached.
21. The October 9, 2013 letter was not returned as undeliverable.
22. Arcobasso never responded to the October 9, 2013 letter and has not demonstrated any justification for her failure to respond.
23. On December 5, 2013, the Missouri Department of Revenue provided an affidavit showing that, as of that date, Arcobasso owed $722.66 in delinquent Missouri state income taxes, with interest updated to December 31, 2013.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

24. Section 385.209 RSMo, Supp. 2013, provides, in part:
 1. The director may suspend, revoke, refuse to issue, or refuse to renew a registration or license under sections 385.200 to 385.220 for any of the following causes, if the applicant or licensee or the applicant's or licensee's subsidiaries or affiliated entities acting on behalf of the applicant or licensee in connection with the applicant's or licensee's motor vehicle extended service contract program has:

* * *
 - (2) Violated any provision in sections 385.200 to 385.220, or violated any rule, subpoena, or order of the director;
 - (3) Obtained or attempted to obtain a license through material misrepresentation or fraud;

* * *

(13) Failed to comply with any administrative or court order directing payment of state or federal income tax[.]

25. Regulation 20 CSR 100-4.100(2) states:

(2) Except as required under subsection (2)(B)—

(A) Upon receipt of any inquiry from the division, every person shall mail to the division an adequate response to the inquiry within twenty (20) days from the date the division mails the inquiry. An envelope's postmark shall determine the date of mailing. When the requested response is not produced by the person within twenty (20) days, this nonproduction shall be deemed a violation of this rule, unless the person can demonstrate that there is reasonable justification for that delay.

(B) This rule shall not apply to any other statute or regulation which requires a different time period for a person to respond to an inquiry by the department. If another statute or regulation requires a shorter response time, the shorter response time shall be met. This regulation operates only in the absence of any other applicable laws.

26. Just as the principal purpose of § 375.141, the insurance producer disciplinary statute, is not to punish licensees or applicants, but to protect the public, Ballew v. Ainsworth, 670 S.W.2d 94, 100 (Mo. App. E.D. 1984), the purpose of § 385.209 is not to punish applicants for a motor vehicle extended service contract producer license, but to protect the public.
27. The Director may refuse to renew Arcobasso's MVEESC producer license pursuant to § 385.209.1(13) because Arcobasso failed to comply with an administrative and court order directing payment of state income tax. The Certificate of Tax Lien – Individual Income Tax, filed on December 7, 2012, by the Director of Revenue in Department of Revenue v. Alexandria A. Arcobasso, St. Charles Co. Cir. Ct., No. 1211-MC06770, which became the judgment of the court upon its filing, remains unsatisfied.
28. The Director also may refuse to renew Arcobasso's MVEESC producer license under § 385.209.1(3) because Arcobasso falsely answered no to Question No. 4 of the 2013 Application and failed to disclose her delinquent tax obligation in her 2013 Application, in order to misrepresent to the Director that she had no delinquent tax obligations and, accordingly, in order to improve the chances that the Director would approve her 2013 Application and issue her an MVEESC producer license.
29. The Director also may refuse to renew Arcobasso's MVEESC producer license under § 385.209.1(2) because Arcobasso violated a rule of the Director, in that Arcobasso failed to respond to two written inquiries from the Consumer Affairs Division—on September 18, 2013, and October 9, 2013—without demonstrating reasonable justification for either of her failures to respond, each time thereby violating regulation 20 CSR 100-4.100(2), which is a rule of the Director.

30. The Director has considered Arcobasso's history and all of the circumstances surrounding Arcobasso's Application. Renewing Arcobasso's MVESC producer license would not be in the interest of the public. Accordingly, the Director exercises his discretion and refuses to renew Arcobasso's MVESC producer license.
31. This order is in the public interest.
