STIPULATION OF SETTLEMENT AND VOLUNTARY FORFEITURE

It is hereby stipulated and agreed by the Missouri Division of Insurance Market Regulation (hereinafter, the "Division"), AMCO Insurance Company (NAIC #19100) (hereinafter "AMCO"), Depositors Insurance Company (NAIC #42587) (hereinafter "Depositors"), Farmland Mutual Insurance Company (NAIC #13838) (hereinafter "Farmland"), Harleysville Insurance Company (NAIC #23582) (hereinafter "Harleysville"), National Casualty Company (NAIC #11991) (hereinafter "National Casualty"), Nationwide Agribusiness Insurance Company (NAIC #28223) (hereinafter "Nationwide Agribusiness"), Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company (NAIC #23787) (hereinafter "Nationwide Mutual"), and Scottsdale Indemnity Company (NAIC #15580) (hereinafter "Scottsdale") as follows:

WHEREAS, the Division is a unit of the Missouri Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration (hereinafter, the “Department”), an agency of the State of Missouri, created and established for administering and enforcing all laws in relation to insurance companies doing business in the State in Missouri; and

WHEREAS, AMCO, Depositors, Farmland, Harleysville, National Casualty, Nationwide Agribusiness, Scottsdale and Nationwide Mutual have been granted certificates of authority to transact the business of insurance in the State of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the Division called Market Conduct Examinations of AMCO, Depositors, Farmland, Harleysville, National Casualty, Nationwide Agribusiness and Nationwide Mutual based upon findings contained in Market Conduct Investigations; and

WHEREAS, based on the Market Conduct Investigations the Division alleges that:

1. AMCO failed to include a payment for sales tax in one commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlement even though AMCO’s policy provided for payment of the sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007 (1),¹ 375.1007(4), and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A);

2. Depositors failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though Depositor’s policy provided for payment of the sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), 375.1007(4), and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A);

3. Farmland failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though Farmland’s policy provided for payment of the sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), 375.1007(4), and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A);

4. Harleysville failed to include a payment for sales tax in one commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlement even though Harleysville’s policy provided for payment of the sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), 375.1007(4), and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A);

5. National Casualty failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though National Casualty’s policy provided for payment of the sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), 375.1007(4), and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A);

6. Nationwide Agribusiness failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though Nationwide Agribusiness’ policy provided for payment of the sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), 375.1007(4), and 20 CSR 100-

1.020(1)(A);

7. Nationwide Mutual failed to include a payment for sales tax in one commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlement even though Nationwide Mutual's policy provided for payment of the sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), 375.1007(4), and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A);

WHEREAS, the Division, AMCO, Depositors, Farmland, Harleysville, National Casualty, Nationwide Agribusiness, Nationwide Mutual and Scottsdale have agreed to resolve the issues/allegations raised in the Market Conduct Examinations and Market Conduct Investigations as follows:

A. Scope of Agreement. This Stipulation of Settlement and Voluntary Forfeiture (hereinafter, "Stipulation") embodies the entire agreement and understanding of the signatories with respect to the subject matter contained herein. The signatories hereby declare and represent that no promise, inducement or agreement not herein expressed has been made, and acknowledge that the terms and conditions of this agreement are contractual and not a mere recital.

B. Remedial Action. AMCO, Depositors, Farmland, Harleysville, National Casualty, Nationwide Agribusiness, Nationwide Mutual and Scottsdale agree to take remedial action bringing each into compliance with the statutes and regulations of Missouri. Such remedial actions shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. AMCO, Depositors, Farmland, Harleysville, National Casualty, Nationwide Agribusiness, Nationwide Mutual and Scottsdale agree that they will pay all first party commercial automobile total loss claims, including payment for all sales taxes relating to such claims, according to the terms of their policy provisions and agree to maintain this remedial action at all times;

2. AMCO agrees that it will pay restitution plus applicable interest to all first party commercial automobile total loss claimants for claims paid or processed at any time from June 1, 2006 to the date of the entry of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations, unless a) AMCO can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Division that it made payment to the claimant for sales tax paid for the total loss vehicle using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss,² or b) AMCO can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Division that the claimant received a credit from the Department of Revenue equal to the full amount of the sales tax using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss. Documentation is not required from the Department of Revenue. Satisfactory documentation that may be submitted to the Division includes, but is not limited to, the following types of documents when such documents evidence the payments and/or credit as described in section B(2)(a) and B(2)(b) above: i) claim file information; ii) claimant responses that are either written or recorded; iii) copies of a purchase agreement for the replacement vehicle; and/or iv) a copy of the replacement vehicle title (“Satisfactory Documentation”). Restitution shall include the amount of the sales tax payable under the policy on the date of loss, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. In the event that a claimant received a credit from the Department of Revenue for the replacement vehicle that was less than the full amount of the sales tax using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss, restitution shall include the amount of the difference. AMCO may send initial written communications to total loss claimants to obtain evidence demonstrating that the claimant received a credit from the Department of Revenue. AMCO’s initial written communications have already been approved by the Division. AMCO is otherwise permitted to contact/address/respond to claimant(s) inquiries/questions/calls without prior review and approval by the Division, however, AMCO agrees that it will not seek to improperly persuade or induce the responses of the claimants.

3. Depositors agrees that it will pay restitution plus applicable interest to all first party commercial automobile total loss claimants for claims paid or processed at any time from June 1, 2006 to the date of the entry of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations, unless a) Depositors can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Division that it made payment to the claimant for sales tax paid for the total loss vehicle using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss,³ or b) Depositors can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Division that the claimant received a credit from the Department of Revenue equal to the full amount of the sales tax using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss. Documentation is not required from the Department of Revenue. Satisfactory documentation that may be submitted to the Division includes, but is not limited to, the following types of documents when such documents evidence the payments and/or credit as described in section B(2)(a) and B(2)(b) above: i) claim file information; ii) claimant responses that are either written or recorded; iii) copies of a purchase agreement for the replacement vehicle; and/or iv) a copy of the replacement vehicle title (“Satisfactory Documentation”). Restitution shall include the amount of the sales tax payable under the policy on the date of loss, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. In the event that a claimant received a credit from the Department of Revenue for the replacement vehicle that was less than the full amount of the sales tax using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss, restitution shall include the amount of the difference. Depositors may send initial written communications to total loss claimants to obtain evidence demonstrating that the claimant received a credit from the Department of Revenue. Depositors’ initial written communications have already been approved by the Division. Depositors is otherwise permitted to contact/address /respond to claimant(s) inquiries/questions/calls without prior review and approval by the Division, however, Depositors agrees that it will not seek to improperly persuade or induce the responses of the claimants.

4. Farmland agrees that it will pay restitution plus applicable interest to all first party commercial automobile total loss claimants for claims paid or processed at any time from June 1, 2006 to the date of the entry of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations, unless a) Farmland can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Division that it made payment to the claimant for sales tax paid for the total loss vehicle using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss,⁴ or b) Farmland can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Division that the claimant received a credit from the Department of Revenue equal to the full amount of the sales tax using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss. Documentation is not required from the Department of Revenue. Satisfactory documentation that may be submitted to the Division includes, but is not limited to, the following types of documents when such documents evidence the payments and/or credit as described in section B(2)(a) and B(2)(b) above: i) claim file information; ii) claimant responses that are either written or recorded; iii) copies of a purchase agreement for the replacement vehicle; and/or iv) a copy of the replacement vehicle title ("Satisfactory Documentation"). Restitution shall include the amount of the sales tax payable under the policy on the date of loss, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. In the event that a claimant received a credit from the Department of Revenue for the replacement vehicle that was less than the full amount of the sales tax using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss, restitution shall include the amount of the difference. Farmland may send initial written communications to total loss claimants to obtain evidence demonstrating that the claimant received a credit from the Department of Revenue. Farmland's initial written communications have already been approved by the Division. Farmland is otherwise permitted to contact/address /respond to claimant(s) inquiries/questions/calls without prior review and approval by the Division, however, Farmland agrees that it will not seek to improperly persuade or induce the responses of the claimants.

5. Harleysville agrees that it will pay restitution plus applicable interest to all first party commercial automobile total loss claimants for claims paid or processed at any time from June 1, 2006 to the date of the entry of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations, unless a) Harleysville can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Division that it made payment to the claimant for sales tax paid for the total loss vehicle using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss,⁵ or b) Farmland can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Division that the claimant received a credit from the Department of Revenue equal to the full amount of the sales tax using the contractual value payable under the terms of the policy at the time of loss. Documentation is not required from the Department of Revenue. Satisfactory documentation that may be submitted to the Division includes, but is not limited to, the following types of documents when such documents evidence the payments and/or credit as described in section B(2)(a) and B(2)(b) above: i) claim file information; ii) claimant responses that are either written or recorded; iii) copies of a purchase agreement for the replacement vehicle; and/or iv) a copy of the replacement vehicle title ("Satisfactory Documentation"). Restitution shall include the amount of the sales tax payable under the policy on the date of loss, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the
