It is hereby agreed by Fidelity National Title Insurance Company, successor by merger to Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation and the Consumer Affairs Division of the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration, as follows:

1. John M. Huff is the duly appointed Director of the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration, State of Missouri (hereinafter, Director) whose duties, pursuant to Chapters 374, 375 and 381, RSMo, include the supervision and regulation of the business of insurance;

2. The Consumer Affairs Division of the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration is charged with investigating producers and companies engaged in the business of insurance pursuant to Section 374.085, RSMo 2000 and is authorized by the Director to recommend enforcement action under the laws relating to insurance;

3. Fidelity National Title Insurance Company is authorized as a title insurance company by the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration, pursuant to Chapters 374, 375 and 381, RSMo;

4. The Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration asserts that the investigation has revealed that:

A. Insured owner Wilma Thurman filed a notice of claim with Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation (LTIC) on July 28, 2009. LTIC had been acquired by Fidelity National Title Insurance Company on December 22, 2008 and merged into Fidelity National Title Insurance Company on June 30, 2010;

C. LTIC failed to implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation of claims in violation of Section 375.1005, RSMo, as defined by Section 375.1007(3), RSMo.

5. Fidelity National Title Insurance Company has been informed of the nature of its violations, of its right to counsel and of its right to contest any attempt by the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration, to discipline its certificate of authority, or to recover whatever penalties or other monetary relief as may be provided for by statute, and states that it understands its rights to contest any such actions;

6. Fidelity National Title Insurance Company understands and agrees that:

A. This agreement only serves as a voluntary settlement of the asserted violations of law regarding the specific circumstances and referenced claim described herein;

B. Nothing in this agreement is to be construed as preventing the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration from instituting an examination or investigation of Fidelity National Title Insurance Company at any time in the future and taking appropriate regulatory action regarding any violations found; and

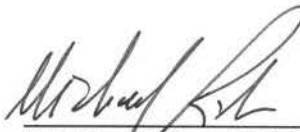

C. The Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration may take the violations that are the subject of this agreement into account in formulating an appropriate regulatory action in response to any other violations found in a subsequent examination or investigation.

NOW, THEREFORE, in lieu of the institution by the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration of any action to revoke or suspend the certificate of authority of Fidelity National Title Insurance Company or to impose any other penalties provided for by statute for the above-described violations, for the sole purpose of settling this disputed matter, after being afforded the opportunity to consult legal counsel, Fidelity National Title Insurance Company, without any admission of a violation of the law, does hereby voluntarily and knowingly agree to this settlement and forfeiture agreement and surrender and forfeit the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500), such sum to be paid into the Missouri State School Fund pursuant to Sections 374.046 and 374.280, RSMo, and Article IX section 7 of the Missouri
