Missouri Amendatory Endorsement – AVP68

I. In the General section of the policy, the following changes are made:
   A. The Cancellation provision is replaced by the following:

       Cancellation
       Your Right to Cancel:
       You may cancel this policy by notifying us of the future date you wish to stop coverage.

       Our Right to Cancel:
       We may cancel this policy by mailing notice to you at the mailing address shown on the Policy Declarations. When this policy has been in effect for less than 60 days, and it is not a renewal with us, we may cancel this policy for any reason.

       When this policy has been in effect for 60 days or more, or if it is a renewal with us, we may cancel this policy for one or more of the following reasons:
       1. non-payment of premium;
       2. conviction of an insured person of a crime involving acts causing an increase in hazard at the insured premises;
       3. fraud or material misrepresentation when obtaining the policy or when submitting a claim; or
       4. physical changes in the covered property which increase the hazards in the risk we originally agreed to insure.

       If the cancellation is for non-payment of premium, we will give you at least 10 days notice. If the cancellation is for any other reason, we will give you at least 30 days notice.

       Our mailing the notice of cancellation to you will be deemed proof of notice. Coverage under this policy will terminate on the effective date and hour stated on the cancellation notice. Your return premium, if any, will be calculated on a pro rata basis and refunded at the time of cancellation or as soon as possible. However, refund of unearned premium is not a condition of cancellation.

       Our Right Not to Renew or Continue:
       We have the right not to renew or continue the policy beyond the current policy period. This policy may be:
       1. canceled;
       2. not renewed;
       3. reduced in amount; or
       4. adversely modified.

       at any time by our giving you 30 days written notice of such action with or without tender of the excess of paid premium above the pro rata premium for the expired time, which excess, if not tendered, shall be refunded on demand. We will give you 10 days notice where such action is based upon non-payment of premium or evidence that an insured person committed arson. Our mailing notice of non-renewal to you will be deemed to be proof of notice.

   B. The Action Against Us provision is deleted.

   C. The following provisions are added:

       Conditional Reinstatement
       If we mail a cancellation notice because you didn’t pay the required premium when due and you then tender payment by check, draft, or other remittance which is not honored upon presentation, your policy will terminate on the date and time shown on the cancellation notice and any notice we issue which waives the cancellation or reinstates coverage is void. This means that we will not be liable under this policy for claims or damages after the date and time indicated on the cancellation notice.

       Loss Reduction And Other Items
       From time to time and in our sole discretion, we may provide you, or allow others to provide you, with:
       1. items, memberships, special offers, merchandise, services, classes, seminars or other things of value designed to help you or other persons insured under this policy manage the risks you or they face, including, but not limited to, loss reduction or safety-related items; or
       2. items, memberships, special offers, merchandise, services, classes, seminars or things of any other type that we think may be of value to you or someone else insured under this policy.

These items, memberships, special offers, merchandise, services, classes, seminars or other things of value may be provided in any form, including, but not limited to, redemption codes, coupons, vouchers and gift cards.

D. The Missouri Guaranty Association provision is added:

Missouri Guaranty Association
Missouri law requires us to inform you that the Missouri Property and Casualty Guarantee Association does not cover policyholder claims of insolvent insurers exceeding $300,000.

The Missouri Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association Act contains the following limitations:

1. Claims covered by the Act do not include a claim by or against an insured of an insolvent insurer if that insured has a net worth of $25 million on the date the insurer becomes insolvent.

2. The Associations’ obligation includes only the amount of each covered claim which is greater than $100 and less than $300,000. However the Association will not:
   a) be obligated to an insured or claimant in excess of the limits of liability of the policy from which the claim arises; or
   b) return to the insured any unearned premium in excess of $10,000.

II. In Section I Conditions, the following changes are made:

A. Item 4, Our Settlement Options, is replaced by the following:

4. Our Settlement Options
In the event of a covered loss, we have the option to:
   a) repair, rebuild or replace all or any part of the damaged, destroyed or stolen property with property of like kind and quality within a reasonable time; or
   b) pay for all or any part of the damaged, destroyed or stolen property as described in item 5, How We Pay For A Loss.

Within 15 days after we receive your signed, sworn proof of loss we will notify you of the option or options we intend to exercise.

If covered property is partially destroyed or damaged by fire, you may:
   a) receive payment for damage done to the covered property; or
   b) have us repair the covered property so that it will be in as good as condition as before the fire.

B. Item 7, Appraisal, is replaced by the following:

7. Appraisal
In case an insured person and we shall fail to agree as to the actual cash value or the amount of the loss, then, on the written demand of either, each shall select a competent and disinterested appraiser and notify the other of the appraiser selected within twenty (20) days of such demand. The appraisers shall first select a competent and disinterested umpire; and failing for fifteen (15) days to agree upon such umpire, then, on request of the insured or this company, such umpire shall be selected by a judge of a court of record in the state and county (or city if the city is not within a county) in which the property covered is located. The appraisers shall then appraise the loss, stating separately actual cash value and loss to each item; and, failing to agree, shall submit their differences, only, to the umpire. The umpire shall make the award within thirty (30) days after the umpire receives the appraisers’ submissions of their differences. An award in writing, so itemized, of any two when filed with this company shall determine the amount of actual cash value and loss. Each appraiser shall be paid by the party selecting such appraiser and the expenses of appraisal and umpire shall be paid by the parties equally.

C. Item 12, Action Against Us, is replaced by the following:

12. Action Against Us
No one may bring an action against us unless there has been full compliance with all policy terms.
D. The following is added:

20. Missouri Domestic Abuse

“Domestic abuse” as used in this provision is the occurrence of stalking of one or more of the following acts between family or household members:
1) attempting to cause or intentionally or knowingly causing bodily injury or physical harm;
2) knowingly engaging in a course of conduct or repeatedly committing acts toward another person under circumstances that place the person in reasonable fear of bodily injury or physical harm; or
3) knowingly committing forcible rape, sexual assault or forcible sodomy, as defined in Missouri Revised Statutes Chapter 566, as amended.

An “innocent coinsured” as used in this provision is an insured who did not cooperate in or contribute to the creation of property loss and the loss arose out of a pattern of domestic violence.

In cases of domestic abuse, if an innocent coinsured files a police report and completes a sworn affidavit for us that indicates both the cause of the loss and a pledge to cooperate in any criminal prosecution of the person committing the act causing the loss, then we will not deny payment to an innocent coinsured on a property loss claim due to any policy provision that excludes coverage for intentional acts. Payment to the innocent coinsured may be limited to such innocent coinsured’s ownership interest in the property as reduced by any payment to a mortgagee or other secured interest; however, we will not be required to make any subsequent payment to any other insured for the part of any loss for which the innocent coinsured has received payment. We have all rights of subrogation to recover against the perpetrator of the loss when making payment to an insured.

b) interest accruing on damages awarded, including prejudgment interest, if any. We will pay this interest only until we have paid, formally offered, or deposited in court the amount for which we are liable under this policy. Interest will be paid only on damages which do not exceed our limits of liability.

B. Under Section II Conditions, item 7, Action Against Us, is replaced by the following:

7. Action Against Us
   a) No one may bring an action against us unless there has been full compliance with all policy terms.
   b) No one may bring an action against us under Family Liability Protection—Coverage X, unless the obligation of an insured person to pay has been finally determined either by judgment against the insured person after actual trial, or by written agreement of the insured person, injured person and us.
   c) No one shall have any right to make us a party to an action to determine the liability of an insured person.

All other policy terms and conditions apply.

III. Section II—Family Liability And Guest Medical Protection is amended as follows:

A. Under Additional Protection, under Claim Expenses paragraph b) is replaced by the following:
