BULLETIN 87-17

TO: All Companies Operating Prepaid Dental Plan's in Missouri
FROM: Lewis R. Crist, Director of Insurance
RE: Application for Certificate of Authority
DATE: November 12, 1987

We have received information that your prepaid dental plan is operating in the state of Missouri.

RESCINDED AND INOPERATIVE

Senate Bill 272 was passed during the 84th General Assembly bringing all prepaid dental plans under regulatory control. The law requires that an application for Certificate of Authority be submitted for approval by January 1, 1988.

As provided for in Section 5, Subsection 2, each prepaid dental plan shall place a deposit with the Director of Insurance in the form of cash, securities, or a bond in the amount of at least $50,000.

Enclosed are the application forms required for the Certificate of Authority which includes a listing of the exhibit's required and deposit proposal.

Any questions regarding procedure for obtaining the Certificate of Authority or arranging for the mandatory deposit should be directed to Mr. William Duemmel at (314) 751-1928.
