DOUGLAS M. OMMEN, Director of the Missouri Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration (“Department”), St. Louis Title, LLC, and the Consumer Affairs Division of the Department (“Consumer Affairs Division”) (hereinafter the “Parties”), agree to the following findings of fact, conclusions of law, and agreement:

Parties

1. WHEREAS, Douglas M. Ommen is the duly appointed Director who has the duty to administer Chapters 374, 375, and 381, RSMo, which includes the supervision, regulation, and discipline of title insurers, their agencies, and agents licensed to operate and conduct business in the state of Missouri;

2. WHEREAS, the Consumer Affairs Division has the duty of conducting investigations into the acts of insurance companies, agents and agencies under the insurance laws of this state and is authorized by the Director to investigate and to recommend enforcement action for violations of the insurance laws of this state;

3. WHEREAS, St. Louis Title, LLC (hereinafter “St. Louis Title”) is a title agency licensed to conduct title insurance business in Missouri (License Number AG 8019762);

Findings of Fact

4. WHEREAS, on or about November 29, 2006, counsel on behalf of the Consumer Affairs Division filed a Statement of Charges (“Statement”) and a proposed Order to Cease and Desist (“Proposed Order”) with the Director in which the Consumer Affairs Division alleged that St. Louis Title did not comply with:

- i. Section 381.181, RSMo (1994), by using and collecting title insurance premiums at rates that had not been filed with the Director through the advertisement and collection of a single amount for title insurance premium in addition to charging other fees including a settlement or closing fee;
- ii. Section 375.144, RSMo (Supp. 2005), by concealing from purchasers at the time of negotiation and sale of insurance material facts concerning the cost of title insurance, including information regarding the actual rate of title insurance and charges or fees for related services that are not included in the filed premium rate and may be discounted or negotiated without limitation; and
- iii. Section 375.934, RSMo (2000), by engaging in an unfair trade practice defined by § 375.936(6), RSMo (2000), through the listing of an all-inclusive “title insurance” fee on real estate closing documents when only a small portion of that fee is a filed insurance premium rate and most of this all-inclusive fee is not title insurance premium, but instead, charges subject to negotiation and discount;

5. WHEREAS, on or about November 29, 2006, the Director issued a Show Cause Order directing St. Louis Title to show cause why the Proposed Order should not be issued;

6. WHEREAS, on or about December 13, 2006, St. Louis Title requested a hearing regarding the matters raised in the Statement and Proposed Order and, on or about December 13, 2006, the Director issued a Hearing Order scheduling a hearing in this matter;

7. WHEREAS, on or about January 19, 2007, St. Louis Title filed an Answer to the Statement and Proposed Order in which it disputed that St. Louis Title's activities, as consistent with longstanding industry practices, constituted violations of Missouri insurance laws and denied any wrongdoing in connection with the allegations set forth in the Statement and Proposed Order;

8. WHEREAS, St. Louis Title and the Department desire to settle the allegations and matters raised by the Consumer Affairs Division;

9. WHEREAS, in recognition of the various interpretations of the former Chapter 381, RSMo, and the new and modified sections of Chapter 381, RSMo enacted by Senate Bill 66 (2007), the Parties consent to the issuance of this Consent Order and agree that this Consent Order constitutes the settlement of disputed claims between the Parties;

10. WHEREAS, St. Louis Title denies the allegations raised by the Consumer Affairs Division, waives the right to a hearing to contest any provision of this Consent Order and has stipulated and agreed to the issuance of this Consent Order without further proceedings in this matter, agreeing to be fully bound by the terms and conditions specified herein;

11. WHEREAS, St. Louis Title has stipulated and agreed to waive any rights that it may have to seek judicial review or other challenge or contest the terms and conditions of this Consent Order and forever releases the Department, the Director and his agents, and the Consumer Affairs Division from any and all liability and claims arising out of, pertaining to, or relating to this matter;

12. WHEREAS, in consideration of St. Louis Title's consent to this Consent Order, the Consumer Affairs Division agrees to dismiss with prejudice its Statement and Proposed Order filed with the Director and the Director agrees to dismiss with prejudice the Show Cause Order directing St. Louis Title to show cause why a Cease and Desist Order should not be issued;

13. WHEREAS, in consideration of St. Louis Title's consent to this Consent Order, the Department and the Consumer Affairs Division hereby waive, release, and remit St. Louis Title, its directors, officers, investors, lenders, employees, agents, representatives, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns from any civil or administrative claim, sanction, or remedy, direct or indirect, that the Department or the Consumer Affairs Division have for or relating to any matter underlying this Consent Order;

14. WHEREAS, the Consumer Affairs Division is authorized to settle this matter and the Director is authorized to issue this Consent Order in the public interest pursuant to § 374.046, RSMo (Supp. 2007) and § 374.280, RSMo (2000); and

WHEREAS, this Consent Order shall not constitute an admission of wrongdoing, liability, or legal fault on the part of St. Louis Title for any conduct underlying this Consent Order, nor shall it be construed as an admission that any person or entity acted wrongfully, unjustifiably, or otherwise;
