WHEREAS, the Division is a unit of the Missouri Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration (hereinafter, the "Department"), an agency of the State of Missouri, created and established for administering and enforcing all laws in relation to insurance companies doing business in the State in Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the Travelers Casualty, Northland, Charter Oak, Phoenix, Travelers Indemnity, Travelers Indemnity America, Travelers Property, Travelers Indemnity Connecticut, Northfield,

American Equity, Automobile, Discover, Farmington, Fidelity Guaranty, Fidelity Underwriters, Gulf, St. Paul Fire, St. Paul Guardian, St. Paul Mercury, St. Paul Protective, Standard, TravCo, Travelers Surety, Travelers America, Travelers Casualty Company, Travelers Casualty Connecticut, Travelers Commercial Casualty, Travelers Commercial Insurance, Travelers Constitution, Travelers Home, Travelers Personal, Travelers Personal Security, Travelers Property Casualty, and United States have been granted certificates of authority to transact the business of insurance in the State of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the Division called Market Conduct Examinations of Travelers Casualty, Northland, Charter Oak, Phoenix, Travelers Indemnity, Travelers Indemnity America, Travelers Property, Travelers Indemnity Connecticut and Northfield based upon findings contained in the Market Conduct Investigations; and

WHEREAS, based on the Market Conduct Investigations, the Division alleges:

1. Travelers Casualty failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though the company's policies provided for payment of the applicable sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1),¹ and 375.1007(4), RSMo, and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A).

2. Northland failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though the company's policy provided for payment of the applicable sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), and 375.1007(4), RSMo, and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A).

3. Charter Oak failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though the company's policy provided for payment of the applicable sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), and 375.1007(4), RSMo, and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A).

4. Phoenix failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though the company's policy provided for payment of the applicable sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), and 375.1007(4), RSMo, and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A).

5. Travelers Indemnity failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though the company's policy provided for payment of the applicable sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), and 375.1007(4), RSMo, and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A).

6. Travelers Indemnity America failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though the company's policy provided for payment of the applicable sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), and 375.1007(4), RSMo, and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A).

7. Travelers Property failed to include a payment for sales tax in two commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlements even though the company's policy provided for payment of the applicable sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), and 375.1007(4), RSMo, and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A).

8. Travelers Indemnity Connecticut failed to include a payment for sales tax in one commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlement even though the company's policy provided for payment of the applicable sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), and 375.1007(4), RSMo, and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A).

9. Northfield failed to include a payment for sales tax in one commercial automobile policy first party total loss settlement even though the company's policy provided for payment of the applicable sales tax in violation of §§ 375.1007(1), and 375.1007(4), RSMo, and 20 CSR 100-1.020(1)(A).

WHEREAS, the Travelers Companies voluntarily provided the Division with the names of additional affiliated companies that offer automobile insurance coverage in the State of Missouri and were willing to enter into this Stipulation. These Companies include the following: American Equity, Automobile, Discover, Farmington, Fidelity Guaranty, Fidelity Underwriters, Gulf, St. Paul Fire, St. Paul Guardian, St. Paul Mercury, St. Paul Protective, Standard, TravCo, Travelers Surety, Travelers America, Travelers Casualty Company, Travelers Casualty Connecticut, Travelers Commercial Casualty, Travelers Commercial Insurance, Travelers Constitution, Travelers Home, Travelers Personal, Travelers Personal Security, Travelers Property Casualty, and United States. Market Conduct Investigations were opened for each company, but no findings were made pending the negotiation of this settlement; and

WHEREAS, the Division appreciates the cooperation shown by the Travelers Companies in providing the names of these affiliated companies and in resolving the above examinations and investigations; and

WHEREAS, the Division and the Travelers Companies have agreed to resolve the issues raised in the Market Conduct Examination and Market Conduct Investigations as follows:

A. Scope of Agreement. This Stipulation of Settlement and Voluntary Forfeiture (hereinafter, "Stipulation") embodies the entire agreement and understanding of the signatories with respect to the subject matter contained herein. The signatories hereby declare and represent that no promise, inducement or agreement not herein expressed has been made, and acknowledge that the terms and conditions of this agreement are contractual and not a mere recital.

B. Remedial Action. Travelers Companies agree to take remedial action bringing each into compliance with the statutes and regulations of Missouri and agree to maintain those remedial actions at all times. Such remedial actions shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Travelers Casualty, Northland, Charter Oak, Phoenix, Travelers Indemnity, Travelers Indemnity America, Travelers Property, Travelers Indemnity Connecticut, Northfield, American Equity, Automobile, Discover, Farmington, Fidelity Guaranty, Fidelity Underwriters, Gulf, St. Paul Fire, St. Paul Guardian, St. Paul Mercury, St. Paul Protective, Standard, TravCo, Travelers Surety, Travelers America, Travelers Casualty Company, Travelers Casualty Connecticut, Travelers Commercial Casualty, Travelers Commercial Insurance, Travelers Constitution, Travelers Home, Travelers Personal, Travelers Personal Security, Travelers Property Casualty, and United States agree that they will pay all first party automobile total loss claims, including payment for all sales taxes relating to such claims, according to the terms of their policy provisions.

2. Travelers Casualty agrees that it will review all first party automobile total loss claims paid or processed at any time from December 1, 2006 to the date of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations to determine if Travelers Casualty paid all applicable sales taxes to total loss claimants for their damaged vehicles using the contractual value payable under the terms of each policy at the time of loss.² If all applicable sales taxes were not paid by Travelers Casualty to a claimant, Travelers Casualty shall pay restitution to the claimant in the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. If the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss cannot be determined, Travelers Casualty shall pay restitution to the claimant using the rate for current applicable sales tax payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. For purposes of this Stipulation, providing a claimant with a sales tax affidavit pursuant to the provisions of §144.027 does not constitute payment of all applicable sales taxes to the claimant.

3. Northland agrees that it will review all first party automobile total loss claims paid or processed at any time from December 1, 2006 to the date of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations to determine if Northland paid all applicable sales taxes to total loss claimants for their damaged vehicles using the contractual value payable under the terms of each policy at the time of loss.³ If all applicable sales taxes were not paid by Northland to a claimant, Northland shall pay restitution to the claimant in the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. If the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss cannot be determined, Northland shall pay restitution to the claimant using the rate for current applicable sales tax payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. For purposes of this Stipulation, providing a claimant with a sales tax affidavit pursuant to the provisions of §144.027 does not constitute payment of all applicable sales taxes to the claimant.

4. Charter Oak agrees that it will review all first party automobile total loss claims paid or processed at any time from December 1, 2006 to the date of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations to determine if Charter Oak paid all applicable sales taxes to total loss claimants for their damaged vehicles using the contractual value payable under the terms of each policy at the time of loss.⁴ If all applicable sales taxes were not paid by Charter Oak to a claimant, Charter Oak shall pay restitution to the claimant in the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. If the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss cannot be determined, Charter Oak shall pay restitution to the claimant using the rate for current applicable sales tax payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. For purposes of this Stipulation, providing a claimant with a sales tax affidavit pursuant to the provisions of §144.027 does not constitute payment of all applicable sales taxes to the claimant.

5. Phoenix agrees that it will review all first party automobile total loss claims paid or processed at any time from December 1, 2006 to the date of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations to determine if Phoenix paid all applicable sales taxes to total loss claimants for their damaged vehicles using the contractual value payable under the terms of each policy at the time of loss.⁵ If all applicable sales taxes were not paid by Phoenix to a claimant, Phoenix shall pay restitution to the claimant in the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. If the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss cannot be determined, Phoenix shall pay restitution to the claimant using the rate for current applicable sales tax payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. For purposes of this Stipulation, providing a claimant with a sales tax affidavit pursuant to the provisions of §144.027 does not constitute payment of all applicable sales taxes to the claimant.

6. Travelers Indemnity agrees that it will review all first party automobile total loss claims paid or processed at any time from December 1, 2006 to the date of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations to determine if Travelers Indemnity paid all applicable sales taxes to total loss claimants for their damaged vehicles using the contractual value payable under the terms of each policy at the time of loss.⁶ If all applicable sales taxes were not paid by Travelers

Indemnity to a claimant, Travelers Indemnity shall pay restitution to the claimant in the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. If the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss cannot be determined, Travelers Indemnity shall pay restitution to the claimant using the rate for current applicable sales tax payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. For purposes of this Stipulation, providing a claimant with a sales tax affidavit pursuant to the provisions of §144.027 does not constitute payment of all applicable sales taxes to the claimant.

7. Travelers Indemnity America agrees that it will review all first party automobile total loss claims paid or processed at any time from December 1, 2006 to the date of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations to determine if Travelers Indemnity America paid all applicable sales taxes to total loss claimants for their damaged vehicles using the contractual value payable under the terms of each policy at the time of loss.⁷ If all applicable sales taxes were not paid by Travelers Indemnity America to a claimant, Travelers Indemnity America shall pay restitution to the claimant in the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. If the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss cannot be determined, Travelers Indemnity America shall pay restitution to the claimant using the rate for current applicable sales tax payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. For purposes of this Stipulation, providing a claimant with a sales tax affidavit pursuant to the provisions of §144.027 does not constitute payment of all applicable sales taxes to the claimant.

8. Travelers Property agrees that it will review all first party automobile total loss claims paid or processed at any time from December 1, 2006 to the date of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations to determine if Travelers Property paid all applicable sales taxes to total loss claimants for their damaged vehicles using the contractual value payable under the terms of each policy at the time of loss.⁸ If all applicable sales taxes were not paid by Travelers Property to a claimant, Travelers Property shall pay restitution to the claimant in the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. If the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss cannot be determined, Travelers Property shall pay restitution to the claimant using the rate for current applicable sales tax payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. provision in the policy supporting the reduction. For purposes of this Stipulation, providing a claimant with a sales tax affidavit pursuant to the provisions of §144.027 does not constitute payment of all applicable sales taxes to the claimant.

35. United States agrees that it will review all first party automobile total loss claims paid or processed at any time from December 1, 2006 to the date of the Final Order closing these Market Conduct Examinations to determine if United States paid all applicable sales taxes to total loss claimants for their damaged vehicles using the contractual value payable under the terms of each policy at the time of loss.³⁵ If all applicable sales taxes were not paid by United States to a claimant, United States shall pay restitution to the claimant in the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. If the amount of applicable sales tax on the date of loss cannot be determined, United States shall pay restitution to the claimant using the rate for current applicable sales tax payable under its policy, including all state, city, county and other taxes. Such restitution shall be paid with no reduction in the amount payable to the claimant if the owner of the total loss vehicle retains the vehicle as salvage, unless there is a clear and specific provision in the policy supporting the reduction. For purposes of this Stipulation, providing a claimant with a sales tax affidavit pursuant to the provisions of §144.027 does not constitute payment of all applicable sales taxes to the claimant.

C. Compliance. Travelers Companies agree to file documentation with the Division, in a format acceptable to the Division, within 120 days of the entry of a final order of any remedial action taken to implement compliance with the terms of this Stipulation and to document payment of restitution required under the terms of this Stipulation.

D. Voluntary Forfeiture. Travelers Casualty agrees, voluntarily and knowingly, to surrender and forfeit the sum of $2,000 such sum payable to the Missouri State School Fund, in accordance with § 374.280. Northland agrees, voluntarily and knowingly, to surrender and forfeit the sum of $2,000 such sum payable to the Missouri State School Fund, in accordance with §374.280. Charter Oak agrees, voluntarily and knowingly, to surrender and forfeit the sum of $2,000 such sum payable to the Missouri State School Fund, in accordance with §374.280. Phoenix agrees, voluntarily and knowingly, to surrender and forfeit the sum of $2,000 such sum payable to the Northfield agrees, voluntarily and knowingly, to surrender and forfeit the sum of $1,000 such sum payable to the Missouri State School Fund, in accordance with §374.280.

E. Other Penalties. The Division agrees that it will not seek penalties against the Travelers Companies, other than those agreed to in this Stipulation, in connection with Market Conduct Examinations 1607-29-TGT, 1607-28-TGT, 1607-30-TGT, 1607-31-TGT, 1607-32-TGT, 1607-33-TGT, 1607-34-TGT, 1607-35-TGT, 1607-36-TGT, and Market Conduct Investigations 282376, 282377, 282378, 282380, 282381, 282382, 282383, 282384, 282385, 282386, 282387, 282388, 282390, 282391, 282392, 282393, 282394, 282395, 282396, 282397, 282399, 282400, 282402, 282404, 282405.

F. Non-Admission. Nothing in this Stipulation shall be construed as an admission by the Travelers Companies, this Stipulation being part of a compromise settlement to resolve disputed factual and legal allegations arising out of the above referenced market conduct examinations and market conduct investigations.

F. Waivers. Travelers Companies, after being advised by legal counsel, do hereby voluntarily and knowingly waive any and all rights for procedural requirements, including notice and an opportunity for a hearing, and review or appeal by any trial or appellate court, which may have otherwise applied to Market Conduct Examinations 1607-29-TGT, 1607-28-TGT, 1607-30-TGT, 1607-31-TGT, 1607-32-TGT, 1607-33-TGT, 1607-34-TGT, 1607-35-TGT, 1607-36-TGT, and Market Conduct Investigations 282376, 282377, 282378, 282380, 282381, 282382, 282383, 282384, 282385, 282386, 282387, 282388, 282390, 282391, 282392, 282393, 282394, 282395, 282396, 282397, 282399, 282400, 282402, 282404, 282405.

G. Changes. No changes to this Stipulation shall be effective unless made in writing and agreed to by all signatories to the Stipulation.

H. Governing Law. This Stipulation shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Missouri.

I. Authority. The signatories below represent, acknowledge and warrant that they are authorized to sign this Stipulation, on behalf of the Division and the Travelers Companies respectively.

J. Effect of Stipulation. This Stipulation shall not become effective until entry of a Final Order by the Director of the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration (hereinafter the "Director") approving this Stipulation.

K. Request for an Order. The signatories below request that the Director issue an Order approving this Stipulation and ordering the relief agreed to in the Stipulation, and consent to the issuance of such Order.
